“1836” is made with the intent of showing the best of what Texas has to offer. The 2014 “1836” Texas Red Table Wine is a blend of and 59% Syrah, 41% Cabernet Sauvignon.

Deep opaque red color, extraordinary fruit extraction, ripe and supple hints of currant, black cherry, black pepper and licorice; medium tannins and a flavorful finish.

“1836” is a fantastic experience with food, try with a hearty Ribeye or N.Y. Strip. Handle with care when pairing with Mexican food AS MIXING THE TWO MAY INCITE A REVOLUTION ON THE PALATE!

The name “1836” was derived to commemorate the famous “Battle of San Jacinto”, where settlers fought a hard won victory that enabled them to form the “Republic of Texas”.
