Viva Rosso is a new and exciting wine made exclusively for Llano Estacado Winery. Viva Rosso is made from grapes originating in Piedmonte, Italy in the province of Alessandria. In the tradition of this region Viva Rosso is made in a style that is slightly spritzzy and bottled under pressure.

Viva Rosso is a blend of two classic DOCG grape varieties, Brachetto (known in Italy as Brachetto d'Acqui) and the extremely popular Moscato d'Asti. Our grapes are processed in Italy and produced using an arrested fermentation technique making Viva Rosso a partially fermented juice. This process results in a small amount of natural CO2 being dissolved in the wine giving it the characteristic "spritz". Viva Rosso is bottled in Italy using special equipment to retain its spritz. After bottling, the cases are loaded on a refrigerated container and shipped to Texas. Our winemaker created this unique blend and made the trip to Italy to supervise the fermentation and bottling.

Chill this one down and simply relax. It's effervescent & refreshing, with a much lower alcohol content to make it a healthy alternative to an active lifestyle. It's perfect as that glass of wine to wind down with after a long, hot day all on its own, yet its affinity to so many types of basic cuisine are simply amazing. "Perfect" with pizza, to Texas BBQ, or as an aperitif with fresh strawberries & ice cream. Enjoy, we know you will!
