Llano Estacado Viognier is made from 99% Texas Viognier grown on the Mont Sec Vineyard in far West Texas, and 1% Roussanne from the Reddy Vineyards on the High Plains. Viognier is recognized as a noble variety in France where it is extensively grown in the Rhone district. The Viognier grapevine has adapted well to our sun-drenched Texas climate producing moderate yields of high quality grapes. Through the years, Llano Estacado Viognier has received awards in regional, national, and international wine competitions. Swirl and smell aromas of white floral, honey-suckle, orange blossom and peach. On the palate, it is full bodied and richly textured. It's a wonderful alternative to Chardonnay.

Food pairings include salads with fruits such as dried cranberries & sliced apples; grilled or broiled chicken and fish dishes; or try it with Veal, with butter or cream sauces. But don't hesitate to simply pop a cork and enjoy it all on its own.
