Gewürztraminer is a spicy aromatic variety made from grapes grown on the Mont Sec Vineyard, near Dell City Texas. Gewürztraminer is a grape with a pink to light-red skin color, which is why you may see a very light pink color to the wine. Llano Gewürztraminer has a bouquet of sweet lychee fruit, pineapple and fresh cut flowers.. Indeed, Gewürztraminer and lychees share many of the same aroma compounds. This wine is produced by cool fermentation that is arrested to retain its fruity aroma, sweetness and a small amount of carbon dioxide.

Gewürztraminer is a fruity, flavorful wine that goes well with; fresh fruit and many white cheeses, Indian foods, most spicy Asian foods, as well as lighter desserts such as a fresh fruit torte.
